SPEAKERS DIRECTORY

October 2009 Edition

A "must have" publication for your society's program chairman.

Societies constantly are faced with the challenge of scheduling quality speakers for their meetings and events. This directory lists speakers available to present programs on history and genealogy related topics. The directory includes speaker biographies and contact information, lecture titles and descriptions, speaker fees and equipment requirements. An index of topics is included, as well as guidelines for successfully communicating with and caring for your speaker. This new edition of the Speakers Directory is three-hole punched for convenient insertion in your program binder. 39 pages, cardstock cover, single-staple bound.
